

QUIZ #1

Take this short quiz before the show!

1. What does “point of view” in a story mean?

- A) The reader’s opinion of the story
- B) The main character’s thoughts
- C) The character responsible for telling the story
- D) The author’s reason for writing the story

2. What is a narrator?

- A) Someone who reads you a story
- B) The main character in a story
- C) Your favorite character in a story
- D) A person or character who tells the story

3. What are the best definitions of first-person narrator and third-person narrator?

- A) First-person narrator is the main character and third-person narrator is a minor character.
- B) First-person narrator is a character in the story and third-person narrator is a character outside the story.
- C) First-person narrator has a name and third-person narrator is a character you don’t know.
- D) First-person narrator is a human and third-person narrator is an animal.

Activity of the Day: My Favorite Narrator!

Circle your favorite character from the five short videos you saw in the show. Then, on the lines below, you can write down a simple idea for a story with that character as the narrator or even draw a picture of the character doing something in a story.

Big Brown Squirrel

Little Alien

Cat Lady

The Cowboy

The Sea Witch

After the show, you can write or draw even more of your story, starring your favorite character!
