

QUIZ #1

Take this short quiz before the show!

1. "Author" is another word for what?

- A) Character
- B) Hero
- C) Writer
- D) Actor

2. Which of the following can be used to express the main message?

- A) Characters
- B) Story events
- C) Setting
- D) All of the above

3. What does "setting" mean?

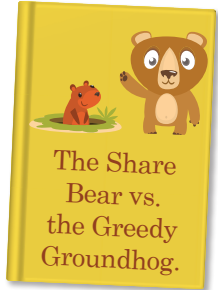

- A) Where and when the story takes place
- B) What the characters say to each other
- C) The main message or theme of the story
- D) The costumes that the characters wear

LIVESTREAM LEARNING STUDIO ACTIVITY WORKSHEET

Activity of the Day

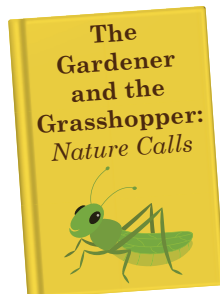

Take a look at these book titles in the left-side column and try to match each one to its main message in the column on the right side. Place a letter next to the book title corresponding to its main message.

- A. "Even if we're far away from someone, they can still be in our hearts until we see them again."
- B. "Getting out in nature can help connect you to plants and animals."
- C. "The best way to learn how to ride a bike is to keep trying until you succeed."
- D. "Two animals learn that sharing what you have with others is more important than wanting more."
- E. "Two furry animals become best friends even though they realize they're totally different."

Use this space to make up your own title and your own main message. There's even room for more than one title, if you're feeling creative!
